Source has reported from Italy in mid-January 1947 that Orthodox Church groups in Argentina have arranged for the immigration of a number of Orthodox priests now in Italy. As of 18 January Father Radojiza Popovic had already secured a visa from the Argentine Consulate in Rome and was expected to leave Italy before the end of January. Upon his arrival in Argentina Popovic expected to try to organize a large-scale immigration of Orthodox exiles, now in Italy, to that country.
